

16th Moscow International Exhibition
PROTECTION, SECURITY
& FIRE SAFETY

SUNKWANG (South Korea) has chosen the MIPS exhibition to present its latest developments.

The South Korean company (part of the Huviron group) emerged in the security systems market at the beginning of the nineties. Today, Sunkwang is one of the leading CCTV manufacturers. Its equipment is currently in great demand in Russia.

As a major international CCTV manufacturer, Sunkwang offers a huge range of video surveillance equipment – from reliable and inexpensive video cameras to high-end technology with the latest functions.
